Chikabulapur

17th July 1894

English Sir,

I send enclosed for your kind perusal papers regarding certain lands of the Rayanahalli village in this Taluk. These lands are now attached to Venkateswara Devaru of Lingsayat; but the income of the lands have not been within the memory of the present generation enjoyed by that temple.
The lands have been in the enjoyment of two individuals the Shankara of the village and another person of name Sreenivasarao of Bangalore. These men had no title whatsoever to them. They seem to have been surreptitiously enjoying them and never paid a pie to the temple at Siropathy. Practically therefore the lands are unclaimed though theoretically they are the property of the Siropathy temple.

That temple as you are aware is an extremely rich one; so rich that these lands being a mere drop in the ~~ocean~~ ocean have been entirely lost sight of. Can you therefore kindly get the lands given to the Rangadhama temple. If you will support me I shall send up a recommendation kindly return the papers.

Yours Very sincerely

Rangadhama

P.S. Rangadhama temple is a very poor one but is of some antiquity and so nice.

I am in receipt of Govt. D.O. of the 17th ultimo.

~~has~~ On reference to the records it is observed that the lands now in question under Gopalakrishna here in the Chickaballapur Taluk are the same lands granted to the Venkatesa rama Swami temple at Tirupati in the North Arcot Dist. and that they have been confirmed accordingly in the same settlement.

The question whether the ~~prochsa~~ service service is now being rendered in the temple and whether it receives the income derived from the lands is under correspondence between this office and the H^d Peshkar of the Govt.

Chattram at Birmapati. On receipt of a reply from him the matter will be duly communicated to you.

2. The enclosures are herewith returned
